

FOCUSING ON THE FAMILY
Part Twenty-Nine: Raising Your Children

III. ADDRESSES THE RIGHT ISSUES

C. Sanctification (character) Issues

1. The Issue of Indolence

2. The Issue of _____

- Parents can train their children to flee temptations to impurity by:
 - Presenting an _____ of purity
 - _____ them to resist temptation
 - Protecting their _____
- Prov. 4:23-27: Protecting your innocence means:
 - Keeping your _____ (vs. 23)
 - What you _____
 - What you hear
 - What ideas you choose to _____
 - What you _____ about
 - Who you _____ to
 - Cleansing your _____ (vs. 24)
 - What you say
 - _____ your eyes (vs. 25)
 - What you choose to see and _____ on
 - Establishing your ways (vs. 26-27)
 - Where you _____
 - What you _____
- How to protect the innocence of your children:
 - _____ media and books before allowing your child to view, listen to, or read them.
 - Evaluate the potential impact of what your child will see, hear, or _____.
 - Provide active oversight of how children are using _____ devices.
 - Both filtering and _____ measures
 - Do not put your kids in situations or take them to places where their _____ will be offended.
 - Teach children to refrain from uncouth or unclean _____ and topics of conversation.

- Such as _____ terms, off-color humor, or taking God's name in vain

- Monitor _____ interactions for negative group dynamics.
- Protect your kids from indoctrination by worldly, unbelieving _____.
- Carefully evaluate any secular _____ opportunity for the potential for negative _____ influences or a spiritually detrimental work environment.
- _____ fervently for their protection.

CONCLUSION: BIBLICAL CASE STUDY

• The right approach:

- _____ with his children (Job 1:1-5)
 - He protected his own _____ (vs. 1).
 - He _____ on his innocence to his children (vs. 4-5).
 - He _____ in his efforts to protect his children into their adulthood (vs. 5).
 - He prayed _____ for his children.