 - A place of everlasting _____ where the smoke of burning ascends forever and ever.
 - A place of everlasting _____ where the worms never die.
 - A place of _____ and gnashing of teeth.
 - A place originally prepared for the _____ and his angels but now also made ready for unredeemed people.
 - A place located in outer _____.
- Rev. 21:8: the lake of fire will be the “_____” (share, allotment) of the wicked for all eternity. They will not inherit all things or have a place in the new creation. Will be on the outside, in outer darkness, forever.

CONCLUSION

- Question: What will the _____ of the story be for you? After you die, then what? Is it possible that you will be joining the rich man in hell?
- Application 1: If you’re not 100% sure you’re headed to heaven when you die, make certain of that fact today.
- Application 2: This overview of the eternal fate of lost should move believers to _____ God for saving our souls in His mercy and motivate us to _____ Christ with those who are headed to that horrible place.
 - We can’t do anything about those who are already in hell, but we can do our best to keep others from _____ them.
