

FOCUSING ON THE FAMILY
Part Fifty-six: Raising Your Children (cont.)

I. RAISING YOUR CHILDREN RIGHT

A. Begins with the right understanding.

B. Relies on the right _____.

C. Addresses the right issues.

D. Employs the right _____.

E. Reaps the right results.

II. THE RIGHT RESULTS

A. _____ and rejoicing

B. _____ righteousness

C. Respectable _____

D. _____ and returning

• Prov. 22:6: _____

• “Train” = to _____, consecrate, catechize
○ Not any kind of training, but effective _____ instruction as an act of dedication.

• “The way he should go”:
○ Not, according to his _____ or talents.
○ Not, according to his own _____-will.
○ But, according to the way of godly _____.

• “The way”
○ The way _____ wants him to go.

• Contrasting two ways:
○ The way a child _____ to go:
▪ Seems right in his own _____
• Prov. 16:25: _____
• Prov. 21:2 _____
▪ _____ and strange
• Prov. 21:8: _____
▪ Leads to _____
○ The way a child _____ to go:
▪ Right in _____ eyes

• Prov. 8:20: _____

▪ Obedient to His _____
• Prov. 6:23: _____

▪ Leads to _____
• Prov. 15:24: _____

• Why parents sometimes _____ with their kids:
○ What worked with one child didn't work with _____.
○ They did a better _____ of godly parenting with some than others.
○ The child was provoked to _____.
○ One parent wasn't a _____ person.
○ The child's heart was never penetrated by the saving, sanctifying _____ of God.

• Parents must effectively engage these four areas in their children:
○ The mind
○ The _____
○ The will
○ The _____

• Prov. 22:6: _____